

Successful Southern Regionals

Monday, 17 October 2011

A big thankyou to all coaches, judges and volunteers that made this event so successful...

On Sunday 16th October, Hobart Gymnastics Academy hosted the Southern Regional competition for women's gymnastics. This event attracted 89 entries, from clubs in Southern Tasmania, covering State and National levels 1 - 3 and International Development Program (IDP) levels 1 & 2.

This competition also selected teams to represent Southern Tasmania in the Regional Challenge, to be held in Launceston on 13th November.

The following girls qualified:

State level 1 team: Chloe Andrew, Lea Krause and Paris Phillips from HGA and Grace Raftery and Bianca Hoggett from Wildcats and Scarlett McKenzie from Kingborough.

National level 1 team: Jorja Tuttle, Megan Steele, Charlotte Booth and Tanisha Slater from HGA and Amelia Thorpe and Aimee Ward from Hobart PCYC.

State level 2 team: Maia Johnson, Sophia Vincent and Ella Anderson from Kingborough, Mackenzie Gossage and Zia Mitchelmore from Wildcats and Rebecca Payne from HGA.

National level 2 team: Jemma Webster from HGA, Lucy Semmens and Ella Visentin from Hobart PCYC and Sophie Botterill-James, Taylah Schwarz, and Amber French from Kingborough.

State level 3 team: Melodie Armstrong, Brielle Pigden, Sophie Hargrave and Isobel Calvert from Wildcats and Olivia Rainbird and Grace Saltmarsh from Hobart PCYC.

Well done to all the girls who competed in this successful competition.
