

Olympians attend Tasmanian Gymnastics Championships

Thursday, 30 August 2012

Joshua Jefferis and cyclist Amy Cure cheered on the gymnasts competing at the Tasmanian Championships on the weekend of the 25th - 26th of August.

The event was hosted by Kingborough Gymnastics at the Main Kingborough Sports Centre with teams from across Tasmania competing. As part of the event, athletes competed in Women's Artistic Gymnastics, Men's Artistic Gymnastics and Rhythmic Gymnastics.

In addition, interstate teams also attended to compete in the Trans Bass Challenge and the Dorrington-Hargreaves Trophy.

The Championships was a show case of fantastic gymnastics and sportsmanship. Congratulations to all athletes who competed.

Stay tuned for a full event report, including results and award recipients.

Tasmanian
Championships

Tasmanian
Championships