

Language is Powerful

Membership & Development, Monday, 7 May 2012

The words we use can affect how people feel about themselves. These words can also affect how the community feels about people. Gymnastics Victoria has developed a brief summary of words to consider when speaking with or about people with a disability.

Please click on the link below to access document through Gymnastics Victoria's Inclusive Resources.

Other Links

Inclusive Resources