

Online training for gymnastics coaches - register now

Friday, 22 March 2013

The Beginner Coaching Course under the new coaching framework has been released.

Course participants can register by following the link below.

Further information including a 'quick guide' can be found by following the link below.

Once this is complete they will be able to enroll in a face to face course where they will be able to become accredited Beginner Coaches.

The Beginner Coaches course is a generic course. Beginner level coaches will coach any gymnsport under the supervision of an Intermediate or higher accredited coach.
