

An additional Beginner Coach Courses soon to be Available!

Wednesday, 8 May 2013

Gymnastics Tasmania are looking at running one more face to face Beginner Coach Courses in Late June or Mid July in the South of the State, further details will be advised once confirmed

Due to the popularity of the two Beginner coaches face to face courses in May, Gymnastics Tasmania have decided to offer another course late June or Mid July in the South of the State (TBC)

All participants wanting to enrol in these face to face courses must first complete the online component of the course. This is available HERE. The online part must be fully completed before coaches will be able to book themselves in for the face to face course.

There are only 20 spaces available in each course so be sure to get your enrolments in early!

For more information on the new coaching framework, please see HERE.
