

The year is flying - it's May already - and there is so much happening in the world of safe, fair and inclusive sport!

Play by the Rules

Wednesday, 15 May 2013

As usual, this edition is packed with as much as we can by way of relevant news, events and articles. There's definitely plenty of reading as we head into the colder winter sport months.

As part of the Australian Government's 'Racism It Stops With Me' Campaign, we have partnered with the Australian Human Rights Commission to produce and distribute a national TV Community Service Announcement (CSA) and several radio CSAs, featuring many of our national sporting heroes. We're very excited with the final products, so keep a look out for the CSAs on TV and radio from the middle of May.

May you play, coach, watch or administrate with a big smile on your face, knowing you're involved with the best past-time there is - grassroots sport.

Best wishes,

The Play by the Rules team
