

Hugh McConnell selected for Pacific Rim Championships

Hugh McConnell and Ben Kelly - 22nd FIG Trampoline Gymnastics World Age Competition

Linsey Da Costa, Tuesday, 1 April 2014

Gymnastics Tasmania would like to congratulate Hugh McConnell on being selected to represent Australia at the Pacific Rim Championships as well as coach Ben Kelly to the position of Head Coach.

Gymnastics Tasmania would like to congratulate Hugh McConnell on being selected to represent Australia at the 2014 Pacific Rim Championships. Hugh's coach, Ben Kelly has also been appointed head coach for the Australian team.

Hugh is the current Junior International Men's National Champion for Individual Trampoline and Synchronised Trampoline and is also a current National Squad Member for both Individual Trampoline and Double-Mini. Ben has recently been appointed the role of assistant National Coach for the 2013 World Championships where Australia won the first bronze medal in the team's event since 1984. Ben brings international experience being involved in the Australian team coaching staff since 2007. Speaking about the announcement Ben says "I am excited and honoured to be appointed head coach for the Australian team travelling to Pacific Rim Championships in 2014."

These championships will be held in Canada from April 9th-12th. We wish Hugh and Ben all the very best in Canada as well as all of the Australian team members.
