Tasmania successful at this year's National Championships

The Australian Championships proved to be one of the most successful to date with the Trampoline team winning five gold, five silver and eight bronze medals.

In the women's trampoline events, Rose Bowerman kick started the medal tally winning her first National Championship in the 17+ Synchronized Trampoline event with West Australian Odette Sproston. Rose went on to find herself on every level of the podium finishing in 2nd place in the Individual Trampoline and 3rd in the Double-Mini event. It was a golden affair for Caitlin Eaton and Amber French who also won the Under 17 and Under 13 Women's Trampoline events respectively. In the men's events; veteran Jack Penny found gold in the Senior Men's Synchronized Trampoline with 2012 Olympian and South Australian, Blake Gaudry. Jack also finished 3rd in the Individual Trampoline and lead the Men's Trampoline Team to a silver medal finish in the team's final. Aaron Harvey rounded off the event with the 5th National Championship title in the 17+ Men's Double-Mini event, where four solid passes lead him to victory. In other notable performances, Damien Axelsen who finished in 3rd position in the Senior Men's Double-Mini event; posted a qualification score for the World Championship team to be selected after the final trial in Hobart in August.

Medal winning performances were also made by Lucy Chesterman and Amber French (3rd) and Ned Whiting and Tim Wilson in the Under 13 women's and men's synchronized events; Dylan Hill and his partner Tai Korsvick (WA) (3rd) in the Under 15 Synchronized Trampoline; Maggie Smolinski and Caitlin Eaton (3rd) in the Women's 17+ Synchronized Trampoline, Eddy Rand (3rd) in the Under 15 DMT event, Madkonnen Brown (2nd) in the Under 17 Tumbling, Nathaniel Suidgeest (2nd) in the Under 17 Individual event, and Damien Axelsen (3rd) in the 17+ Tumbling.
